Place, date (signature of legal guardian)

IMPORTANT NOTES:

Please enclose a copy of the identity card of the signing guardian.

A piercing or tattoo represents an interference with physical integrity and can lead to health damage. I reserve the right to reject certain tattoos or piercings despite your parents' consent.

Minimum age for a tattoo / piercing is at least 16 years, with the consent of one or both legal guardians. Each of the young people is required to identify themselves.

Affidavit of the minor.

I hereby declare on oath that the declaration of consent given above was actually completed and signed by my mother, father or another legal guardian.

The following are not considered legal guardians: brother, sister, uncle, aunt or other close relatives!

I am aware of the consequences of a false affidavit and that it is a criminal prosecution.

From the age of 14 I have a legal age and I am also aware of this.

I have my own pocket money.

I am aware of the sustainability of my actions.
